Abstract

This document includes helpful information for the installation and use of HP Insight Integration for Tivoli, Revision 4.2. For companies that implement HP servers and Tivoli enterprise management as key elements of their IT infrastructure, the HP Insight Integration for Tivoli is a comprehensive solution that simplifies systems management by integrating SNMP event and status indications for HP ProLiant, AlphaServer, and Integrity Superdome servers into the Tivoli Enterprise Console (TEC), along with tasks that enable in-depth hardware data collection for ProLiant servers and integrated links to HP management tools.

Installation of Insight Integration kit 4.2

The version of Insight Integration kit can be downloaded and installed to your system. To install a fresh copy of Insight Integration kit or upgrade a previous revision of Insight Integration kit, follow the installation procedure as described in the HP Insight Integration for Tivoli, Revision 4.2 User Guide.

Known Issues

Following are the known issues and limitations for this release of Insight Integration kit:

- At the time of release of HP Insight Integration for Tivoli, revision 4.2, events 22001(cpqRackNameChanged) and 22020 (cpqRackPowerSubsystemOverloadCondition) supporting c-Class Enclosure (defined in cpqrack.mib) are not displayed on the TEC console due to certain limitations with Onboard Administrator (OA) firmware version 1.3. HP Insight Integration for Tivoli, revision 4.2 has support to display the above-mentioned events on the TEC console and the same will be available with the OA firmware support in the future releases.
- Operating System support of HP Insight Integration Kit for Tivoli is limited by the OS support of Tivoli software as provided by IBM.
